Who Put A Lizard In My Lasage 22:

Leader's Guide

A Message from Sam...

"The "lizard" experience has taught me some pretty simple, yet life-enriching lessons. Looking back, I am just thankful that Mom didn't put a fake spider or snake in the lasagna. I'm not sure I could have handled that, but overall I have come to appreciate and draw upon the dynamic of this lesson. The point to remember is that you don't need a plastic lizar that ieve more of what you desire in life. The "essence" of the lasagna is already in you. You showed up on this plane. The plane is already in you apply them right where the lasagna gifts and abilities; if you apply them right where the lasagna is that simple. Plus, as an added bonus, when you do the same lings will happen!

I personally look for opportunit. eve. day to apply this lesson, which is to use the berefit of I am to create the best of what I want. It's not about acq. I g stuff. Some of us have so much stuff, we need to the a garage sale! Instead, this is about gaining what is the infinite gful and making your life worthwhile. My hope is the analysis of the ill embrace these ideas and make them your own they will only work for you if you take them home with the infinite infinit

A Message to the Facilitator

You do not have to be a professional trainer to use this program. Sam Glenn's philosophy is straightforward and easy to implement. He believes that everyone can bring their creativity, positive attitude and enthusiasm into every interaction with customers and co-workers. The facilitator will act as a liaison to spread Sam's message. This is a process not an instant cure. Not everyone will "buy-in" right away. But if you can help several people in your workplace become more creative and positive, it will spread like wildfire. You will also help create a more enriched workplace and it will become contagious. We promise!

Sam's message is fun and uplifting and most participants v with a renewed sense of energy. Be sure to emphasize this and them set high goals. Keep communication open and c to reinforce the positive. Let them share their thought and air storm new ways to keep the energy alive both in the work and neir lives. When you are preparing the program ver mb wowing:
