

The Inspired School Year Engagement Package

Welcome

The Inspired School Year Engagement Package is a comprehensive training solution that offers educators a simple way to generate discussion about important topics, and provides a simple way to make every gathering more effective.

By utilizing the complete Dewitt Jones library and the new materials created specifically for educators, the training opportunities are endless. This package gives you training options to use throughout the school year, along with group exercises and thought-provoking questions to maximize participation and engagement.

This training package can be used with teachers, administrators, students, and parents. You can choose to use it in a multitude of different ways and in a variety of settings. The goal is to generate critical conversations on the topics that are most relevant to your school.

Included in your purchase:

5 full-length films by Dewitt Jones on DVD

Celebrate! Change Your Lens, Change Your Life, Celebrate What's Right With the World, Everyday Creativity, Focus Your Vision and For The Love of It

SUGGESTED USAGE

Back-to-school launches, in-service days, classroom use, and any gathering where you have a few hours to really delve into a topic. Each title comes with a complete facilitator's guide with questions and group activities.

TIPS

Review each program before you show it to your group to determine which portion of the materials you would like to use. You can also customize it for your organization by developing questions specific to your situation and school. Please note that these programs are meant to generate meaningful conversation and facilitate change.

Short Stories DVD:

10 short stories from Dewitt's best-selling films

SUGGESTED USAGE

These short films are appropriate for shorter gatherings and are more topic specific. They can be used for lunch meetings, staff meetings, etc. A program can be completed in as quickly as 30 minutes, or go as long as 90 minutes. Each film (from one to five minutes long) includes materials that focus on a specific topic relevant within education, along with questions and an activity. These films can be used in any order.

TOPICS

Communication, creativity, vision and leadership, trust, character, social issues, motivation, school climate, connections, and energy.

TIPS

We recommend that you review each topic before presenting to the group to customize it for your needs.
